SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION CRITERIA

The Promoters of Art-Literature-Science (PALS) Scholarship program focuses on encouraging traditionally low-income underrepresented minorities to pursue higher education in one of the PALS disciplines.

To qualify, applicants must be:

- Any Minority, (culturally, ethnically, or racially distinct group) that coexists with but is subordinate to a more dominant group. As the term is used in the social sciences, this subordinacy is the chief defining characteristic of a minority group. As such, minority status does not necessarily correlate to population.
- A graduating high school senior with a minimum 3.0 GPA
- Planning to major in either Art, Literature, or Science at an accredited college or university, and
- Involved in Community Service/volunteerism
